Victim Services

Mission Statement

The Office of Victim Services seeks to improve the treatment of Georgia crime victims by providing training, support services and other assistance to prosecution-based victim witness assistance programs that will enhance their ability to guide individuals and /or groups through the criminal justice process and speed crime victims' recovery from criminal acts. When requested by a prosecution-based victim assistance program, the office may provide direct support to victims. The Office of Victim Services coordinates and provides logistical support to the state-wide crisis support team (CRT) of NOVA trained, prosecution based personnel.
